

What is His Name?

When ישוע Yeshua Jesus/Salvation tells Nicodemus in John 3 about the need for being born again, ישוע says in verse 13 that only He, the Son of Man, has gone up to heaven and come down. Nicodemus would have recognized this as a reference to Proverbs 30.4 which continues, מַה-שְׁמוֹ וּמַה-שֵׁם-בְנֹו (the 1st row of red letters in the chart below) Mah-Shemo oo'mah-Shem-Beno What is His Name, and what is the Name of His Son? By itself, הַשֵּׁם haShem the Name is often used instead of a specific name for God. The passage concludes in verse 6 with the warning, אַל-תוֹסֵף עַל-דְּבָרָיו (the 2nd red row) Al-tosef al-devarav Do not add to His words...

There are 22 letters in the Hebrew alef-bet. By putting each letter of Proverbs 30.4-6 into a 22-letter grid (ELS/equidistant letter spacing), we can find the Name of His Son:

הַשֵּׁם intersects with ישוע in the form of a cross—the Name is Yeshua!

As ישוע is baptized in Matthew 3.16-17, the רוּחַ ruach Spirit of God descends on Him. Here in the chart you can see the רוּחַ alighting on ישוע! Then God's voice confirms, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." The next time we hear this voice in Matthew 17.5, God adds, "Listen to Him!"

Proverbs 30.4 asks, "What is His Name and what is the Name of His Son?" Of the bread from heaven, Exodus 16.31 says the house of Israel called אֶת-שְׁמוֹ מַן et-shemo man his name manna (manna is literally, "What is it?"), though this is translated the name or its name manna. Speaking of מַן in John 6.33, ישוע says that the Bread of God is He that comes down from heaven. In Exodus His Name is מַן; in the Gospels it is ישוע.
